 - Affiliation: Institution, city, country, and email, centered.
 - Date: Not required.

2. Abstract (≤ 250 words)

- Brief summary of the research.
- Covers objective, methods, key findings, and conclusion.
- Use bold "Abstract—" before the text.
- After the abstract, add Index Terms (keywords related to the paper).

Example

Abstract— This paper presents a novel approach to sentiment analysis using deep learning. The proposed model...

Index Terms— Sentiment analysis, deep learning, NLP, CNN.

3. Introduction

- Background and motivation for the research.
- Research problem statement.
- Scope of the study.

- Contribution of the paper.
 - Structure of the paper (optional).

4. Literature Review (Optional)

- Overview of previous research.
 - Gap analysis to justify your study.

5. Methodology

- Explanation of research methods.
- Mathematical equations (use IEEE equation formatting).
- Figures and Tables (centered, with captions).
- Software/tools used.

Example Equation Format (Centered & Numbered)

$$E=mc^2$$

(1)

6. Results and Discussion

- Present findings with tables, graphs, and explanations.
 - Comparison with previous studies.
 - Discussion of limitations.

7. Conclusion

- Summary of findings.
 - Practical applications.
 - Future research directions.

8. Acknowledgments (Optional)

- Recognize funding sources, collaborators, and contributors.

9. References (IEEE Citation Style)

- Use numbered citations [1], [2], [3] in the text.
- Follow IEEE referencing format in the reference list.

Example In-Text Citations

- As discussed in [1], deep learning is...
- According to Smith et al. [2], the accuracy is...

Reference List Format

1. J. K. Author, "Title of the Paper," Journal Name, vol. XX, no. XX, pp. XX-XX, Year.
2. J. K. Author, Title of the Book. Location: Publisher, Year.
3. J. K. Author, "Title of Conference Paper," in Proceedings of Conference Name, Location, Year, pp. XX-XX.
